

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Leland L. Sudlow is a native of South Dakota--born in Bison, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Leland served in the U.S. Navy after graduating from high school and then earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in journalism at South Dakota State University; and,

WHEREAS, Leland joined the SDSU faculty as a specialist in the production of news and slide photos; he edited publications, managed audio-visual teaching equipment and supervised an extensive offset printing operation; and has attained the rank of Associate Professor of Extension; and,

WHEREAS, Leland has devoted his life to the betterment of his community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Leland has been a devoted servant to the South Dakota State Fair for 38 years--treating his Labor Day holiday as a regular working day for the full 38 years which equals nearly an entire year of his life; and

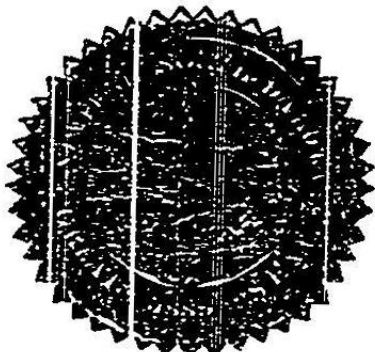

WHEREAS, Leland is a devoted husband to his wife, Adela, and a loving father to their three children--Patrice, Leland and Michele; and,

WHEREAS, On May 31, after 40 years of public service to the state of South Dakota, Leland is retiring:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 31, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join his many friends and relatives in wishing him good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fifth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
